PRESIDENT'S CRISIS PASSED

McKinley Shows Such Steady Gains that His Relatives and Friends Are Leaving Buffalo—
Cheerful of Mind and Resting Easy.

Latest News from Buffalo, 3.20 P. M.

There is no change since this morning's favorable bulletin. Pulse, 110; temperature, 100; respiration, 28.

The President asked for the papers again to-day and also asked when he would be allowed to sit up. With the exception of the physicians and attendants, only Mrs. McKinley and Secretary Cortelyou have been admitted to his presence.

The most significant indication that the President is considered out of danger is that Vice-President Roosevelt will leave here late to-night for Oyster Bay, and about the same time Senator Hanna will depart for Cleveland.

Both have declared that they would not leave Buffalo until they were convinced that the President's recovery was assured.

Dr. McBurney declares: "The President is practically out of danger."

Full details of the President's condition and of the Anarchists' plot will be found on inside pages.

POLO GROUNDS, Sept. 10.—The Giants and the St. Louis cowboys lined up for the last time this season on the local grounds, but the baseball public didn't show any interest in the event; that is, few fans were present.

It seemed as if the teams were playing for their own amusement, and the crowd present were merely passers-by. There was no enthusiasm, and the snappiest kind of preliminary work went by comparatively unnoticed.

First Inning.

Burkett clapped one for a bug. McBride was under Heidrick's rocket. Wallace's lift went to Davis. Padden doubled, but McBride's nose threw home was Burkett's finish at the plate. No runs.

Second Inning.

Donovan connected for a base and moved up when Mudge swatted Schriver on the head. Kruger's finish at first moved up both runners. Nichols's rap to centre was a one-bagger and it seemed Donovan. Nichols was caught in an attempt to annex second. Mudge fooled Harper with three. One run.

Davis singled. Strang got first gratis. "Rabbit" Miller beat out his punt.

Ganzel's wait was profitable, and Davis was forced home. Warner fanned. Mudge reached first on a punt and Strang scored. Selbach took the three count. So did McBride, and three Giants were left on bases. Two runs.

WASHINGTON PARK, BROOKLYN, Sept. 10.—The fans of this borough must have gone to the races in a body to-day, for when the final game of the season's series began, one could put everybody present in a small corner of the grand stand and still have room for a good game of tag on the empty benches.

The crowd today wasn't made up of regulars. They looked like a bunch of strangers who didn't know what was to come. It seemed as if they had seen

The Chicagoans made two runs after the second inning and up to the seventh. The Champions had added three to their score.

PARKHURST AGENTS RAID
A BIG POOL-ROOM.

Parkhurst agents this afternoon raided an alleged gambling resort at No. 121 Eighth avenue and captured three men. The prisoners were arraigned in West Twenty-fifth street station. The prisoners were John Kelly, of No. 627 Amsterdam avenue; John Davis, of No. 258 West Twenty-fourth street; and George Williams, of No. 35 Madison street. The place was in full blast. Ex-Fireman James Kinnihan, who was accused some time ago of tipping gamblers of the approach of raiders, rushed into the place ahead of the raiders. Several men escaped by the back windows. There are warrants for two men who were not caught. The prisoners were held in $1,000 bail each by Acting Captain Coffey for examination to-morrow before Justice Jerome.

DEVERY, NATION
& CO. IS IN ORDERSMASHER CALLS ON BIG CHIEF
TO SAY GOOD-BY.

He Tells Her, "You and I Together Could Do a Lot of Good in New York."

Mrs. Carrie Nation paid a farewell visit to Chief Devery's office at Police Headquarters this afternoon.

Mrs. Nation gave the Deputy Commissioner a long heart-to-heart talk about doing away with the liquor traffic in New York. The Deputy Commissioner listened politely, occasionally nodding his approval.

"I'm sorry you're going away so soon," he told her after she had finished. "You and I together could do a lot of good in New York."

Mrs. Nation leaves town to-night at 7 o'clock for Penn Yan, N. Y., where she will take a few weeks' rest from her arduous labors. But she says she'll be back later on.

ALL READY TO

Justice Jerome took it up to-day when he called to his private chambers in the Criminal Courts Building half a dozen policemen of the East Twenty-second

CHARGED WITH PLOT TO MURDER.

Notorious Anarchist, Captured in Chicago, Admits that She Knew Czolgosz.

"We have arrested Emma Goldman on the charge of conspiracy to murder the President of the United States.

"Her arrest will lead to the breaking up of the most blood-thirsty and murderous gang of Anarchists that have ever infested any country.

"She sullenly refuses to make any statement, but we believe many others were implicated in the plot. The information leading to her arrest came from a private source."—Chief of Police O'Neil of Chicago, long-distance telephone to The Evening World.

The warrant on which Miss Goldman is arrested gives as her co-conspirators Abraham Isaacs, Maurice Isaacs, Clemence Pfeffer, Hippolite Havel, Henry Travaglio, Alfred Schneider, Juli Meehame, Marie Isaacs and Marie Isaacs, jr. All but Miss Goldman were arrested some days ago. Mrs. Norris, the woman with whom Miss Goldman boarded, was arrested this afternoon.

CHIEF TELLS HOW ARREST WAS MADE.

BY FRANCIS O'NEILL,
Chief of Police Chicago.

(Over long distance telephone to The Evening World.)

"The arrest of Emma Goldman was made this morning at 11 o'clock. She was arrested in a private house at No. 303 Sheffield avenue by Officer Charles K. Herts and Capt. Schuttler. She was stopping at the house which is occupied by a Mr. Norris.

"She is charged with plotting to assassinate the President.

"The information came to me from a person whose name I do not care to mention.

"I detailed the two officers on the case at once and they went to the house, where they found the woman. We had been looking for her for some days, but had not been able to locate her.

"The North Side has long been the home of many Anarchists, but the place where Emma Goldman was a good residence district near Lincoln Park.

"I expect important development in a day or two."

"She was very calm when arrested and evinced no surprise. The officer took her to the Harrison street police station, where she was closely questioned. She maintained that she was innocent of any wrongdoing and that the law had no right to detain her.

"I consider it the most important arrest of an Anarchist since the Haymarket riot, when the bomb was thrown.

"Emma Goldman is the most notorious woman Anarchist in America. She has been a frequent visitor to Chicago, where she has been the guest of Anarchist friends.

"She was well acquainted with Mrs. Parsons, Oscar Neebe and others who figured in the big riot here.

"The North Side has long been the home of many Anarchists, but the place where Emma Goldman was a good residence district near Lincoln Park.

"I expect important development in a day or two."
